

Cancellation Policy

The minimum number of students for this class is 6. If I have to cancel because of class size, covid closures or for any other reason, you will receive a full refund of tuition paid including your deposit. If you like, you may transfer the deposit to my next offering of the same class to hold your spot.

Otherwise, the deposit is non-refundable. If you have to cancel for any reason before the start of class, you will receive a refund of tuition paid minus the $300 deposit and a 3.5% credit card fee. "Start of class" refers to the beginning of our first ZOOM session. No refunds are guaranteed after the start of class but you may complete the course during my next hybrid offering if there is space available.
